The Honorable Marvin Mandel
Governor
State of Maryland
Executive Department
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Governor Mandel:

Enclosed is the first volume of the Second Annual Desegregation Status Report. This volume includes summary tables of data on students and employees that is presented in more detail in the other three volumes of this report. The data were collected in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Plan for Completing the Desegregation of the Public Postsecondary Education Institutions in the State.

The data collected for fall 1975 includes race composition information on applications rates, residence, financial aid awards, degrees, progression rates, and enrollment by program area for students. Also collected were data on full and part-time employees, changes in status of employees, salaries of full-time faculty, and information on faculty by program area. Racial composition data for employees of State agencies and members of boards associated with higher education are included in the report.

The Second Annual Report attests to the States progress in its desegregation efforts for public postsecondary education institutions. Considerable progress has been made in the last five years (1970 to 1975) toward achieving a better racial balance among students. The percent of black full-time undergraduate students has increased from 13.3% in 1970 to 20% in 1975; the percent of black full-time graduate students has increased from 7.7% in 1970 to 10.2% in 1975. Twenty-three of twenty-eight reporting campuses have increased the percentage of other race students among full-time undergraduate students since 1974. An Other-Race Grants program for graduate students has been initiated for next fall to help institutions attract other-race students at the graduate level.

The data also indicate that the number of black employees has increased since fall 1974, particularly in the faculty and non-professional categories. The percentage of black employees among all employees has decreased slightly. Several Statewide programs have been established this year to assist the institutions in recruiting and hiring more other-race persons, including the Central Placement Bureau; the Faculty and Administrative Exchange Program and the Minority/Other Race Internship Program.

The Honorable Marvin Mandel

February 6, 1976

Sincerely,

INTRODUCTION

This is the first volume of the Second Annual Desegregation Status Report, February 1976. The tables in this volume are summary tables taken from the more complete data in the following volumes:

Volume II    Student Related Data: Admissions,
                 Residence, Financial Aid, Degrees
                 Awarded and Progression

Volume III   Student Enrollments by Program

Volume IV    Employees and Board Members

The data for this report were collected in Fall 1975 with the cooperation of the higher education institutions and segmental boards. The Second Annual Desegregation Status Report has been prepared and published in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Plan for Completing the Desegregation of the Public Postsecondary Education Institutions in the State.

Brief Description of Summary Tables

Table 2a Summary of Residence by County of Origin for Maryland Residents, Fall 1975

Table 2a presents information on the county of origin for Maryland residents enrolled Fall 1975. The data represent all Maryland public postsecondary education institutions and include full and part-time students on the undergraduate, graduate and first professional degree levels.

The institutions reported a total of 157,434 students enrolled fall 1975 who were Maryland residents. Of the students, the largest percent came from Baltimore County (19%), Prince George's County (17%), Montgomery County (17%) and Baltimore City (16%). The remaining 31% were from other counties.

For black students, 27,031 were reported as Maryland residents: 53% came from Baltimore City, 19% from Prince George's County, and 28% from other counties. For white students, 107,443 were reported as Maryland residents: 22% from Montgomery County, 20% from Baltimore County, 18% from Prince George's County and 40% from other counties.

The other minority students were mostly from Prince George's and Montgomery Counties: 49% of American Indians, 61% of American Asians and 63% of Hispanics were from these two counties. Twenty-three percent of American Indians were from Baltimore County or Baltimore City.

Table 2b Summary of Residence Status for All Students, Fall 1975

Table 2b presents information on residence status for all students enrolled in Maryland public postsecondary institutions fall 1975, including full and part-time undergraduate, graduate and first professional degree students. The institutions reported 176,830* students enrolled: 89% were considered Maryland residents, 7% were from out-of-state, 2% were foreign students and 2% were of unknown residence.

Large percentages of students of all races were reported as Maryland residents: 89% of black students, 93% of white students, 86% of American Indian students, 91% of American Asian students, and 88% of Hispanic students were from Maryland. The percentages of minority students attending college in Maryland from out of state are larger than the percent of white students from out of state: 10% of black students, 14% of American Indian students, 9% of American Asian students and 12% of Hispanic students were from out-of-state compared to 7% of white students.

*The total number of students reported here is slightly larger than the number reported for Table 7, Student Enrollment by Program, Fall 1975. Two separate forms were used for data collection for these tables; the difference is less than 1% of the number reported here.

Brief Description of Summary Tables

Table 4a Summary of Financial Assistance to Undergraduate Students, Fall 1975

Table 4a presents summary information on the number of grants, scholarships, loans, and student employment awards given to undergraduate students at Maryland public colleges and universities. The average amounts of these awards are also illustrated. Data are included from all seventeen* community college campuses, all eight state four year college/university campuses and all five University of Maryland campuses.

A total of 47,773 financial aid awards were reported by the institutions, at an average of $612: 19,718 (average amount of $614) were grants; 11,710 (average amount of $741) were loans; 7,502 (average amount of $438) were scholarships; and 8,843 (average amount of $584) were student employment awards. Black students received 40% of the grants (average amount of $624), 38% of loans (average amount of $694), 38% of student employment awards (average amount of $587) and 15% of scholarships (average amount of $445). White students received 42% of the loans (average amount of $664), 41% of student employment awards (average amount of $498), 32% of the grants (average amount of $453) and 31% of the scholarships (average amount of $345). Other minority students received about 1% of all awards (average amount of $589); foreign students received less than 1% of awards (average amount of $504). Twenty-seven percent of the awards were given to students whose race was unknown.

Table 4b Summary of Financial Assistance to Graduate and First Professional Students, Fall 1975

Table 4b illustrates the number and average amount of financial aid awards to graduate and first professional degree students at Maryland public four year colleges/universities and the University of Maryland campuses. A total of 4,341 awards were reported, with an average award of $2,248: 1,388 were grants, scholarships or fellowships (average amount of $1,068); 1,074 were loans (average amount of $1,472); and 1,879 were student employment awards (average amount of $3,564). The student employment awards include graduate teaching and research assistantships.

Black students received 22% of the grants/scholarships/fellowships (average amount of $1,530), 18% of the loans (average amount of $1,000) and 6% of the student employment awards (average amount of $2,467). White students received 75% of the grants/scholarships/fellowships (average amount of $926), 76% of loans (average amount of $1,575) and 83% of student employment awards (average amount of $3,555). Other minority students received about 2% of the awards (average amount of $2,316); foreign student received 4% of the awards (average amount of $4,346). About 2% of the awards were to students whose race was unknown.

*The data do not include the Germantown campus of Montgomery College which enrolled students for the first time in fall 1975.

Table 4c Summary of State Scholarship Program Awards

Table 4c presents information about the number and average amounts of awards made from the three State Scholarship Programs: General State Scholarships; House of Delegate Scholarships; and Senatorial Scholarships (see the Glossary, Appendix A for descriptions of these programs). These scholarships are only available to undergraduate students. The institutions reported a total of 1,154 General State Scholarship awards (average amount of $487), 223 House of Delegate Scholarship awards (average amount of $579), and 3,877 Senatorial Scholarship awards (average amount of $371). Large percentages of these scholarships are reported to have been given to students whose race was unknown. These scholarships are distributed by the State Scholarship Board; recipients are chosen by the State Scholarship Board for General State Scholarships, the Maryland State Delegates for House of Delegate Scholarships, the Maryland State Senators for the Senatorial Scholarships. These data were gathered from the institutions. Caution must be taken in interpreting the data by race categories because of the large numbers of recipients whose race was unknown. The reader is also cautioned that these data do not represent all awards under these programs. Students attending private institutions are eligible for these awards.

Brief Description of Trend Tables

Trends in Degrees Granted by Program 1974-1975

Table 6a Certificate and Associate Degrees

Table 6 presents information on the number of certificate and associate degrees awarded by program areas in 1974 and 1975. Data are included from all seventeen*community college campuses, all eight state college/university campuses and all five campuses of the University of Maryland.

The total number of certificate and associate degrees reported by Maryland public colleges and universities increased from 5,442 in 1974 to 7,510 in 1975. While the number of degrees awarded to black and white students appear to have increased from 1974 to 1975, caution should be taken in interpreting these figures because 22% of the 1974 degrees and 15% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to persons whose race was unknown.

In general, the number of certificate and associate degrees awarded to black students appear to have increased in all areas except Education and Engineering related fields. The number of awards to white students generally increased or remained constant in all areas except Communications and Engineering (not including Engineering Technologies). The number of awards to other minority students decreased in all areas except Interdisciplinary Studies and Arts and Sciences.

Table 6b - Bachelors Degrees

The total number of Bachelor's degrees awarded increased from 12,173 in 1974 to 13,218 in 1975. The number of degrees awarded have increased in the fields of Agriculture, Biological Sciences, Business, Communications, Computer Sciences, Health Professions, Home Economics, Physical Sciences, Psychology, Public Affairs and Services and Interdisciplinary Studies. The number of degrees awarded have decreased in the fields of Architecture, Area Studies, Education, Engineering, Fine and Applied Arts, Foreign Languages, Letters and Social Sciences. A large percentage (55%) of the degrees awarded in 1974 were awarded to persons whose race was unknown, therefore no conclusions can be drawn from these data about the racial composition of Bachelor's degree recipients.

Table 6c Master's Degrees

The number of Masters degrees awarded have increased from 2,715 in 1974 to 3,020 in 1975. The number of Master's degrees awarded to black students appear to have increased in 1975; however, because 10% of the 1974 degrees and 20% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to students whose race was unknown, caution should be taken in interpreting racial composition data. In general, the numbers of master's degrees have increased in the fields of Agriculture, Business, Education, Library Science, Physical Sciences, Psychology and Public Affairs and Services.

*The data do not include the Germantown campus of Montgomery College which enrolled students for the first time in fall 1975.

Table 6d - Doctorate Degrees

The total number of doctorate degrees awarded increased from 344 in 1974 to 400 in 1975. Sizeable increases were in the fields of Biological Sciences, Education and Engineering. Since 43% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to persons whose race was unknown an accurate interpretation of the racial composition data cannot be made.

Table 6e First Professional Degrees

The number of first professional degrees awarded in the field of Law increased from 531 in 1974 to 559 in 1975, while the number of degrees awarded in Dentistry decreased from 126 in 1974 to 119 in 1975, and the number awarded in Medicine decreased slightly from 136 in 1974 to 134 in 1975. The number of degrees awarded to blacks in the fields of Dentistry and Law increased in 1975, while the number of Medical degrees decreased slightly. Degrees awarded to whites in the field of Medicine and Dentistry decreased, while the number of Law degrees awarded increased in 1975.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF SUMMARY TABLES

Summary of Student Progression
and Reasons for Not Returning
Fall 1975Table 8a - Full-Time Undergraduate Students

Table 8a illustrates the numbers and percentages of 1974 full-time first year undergraduate enrollees who returned or did not return to the reporting institutions in fall 1975. It also shows the percentages of these students who advanced to second year status or remained in first year status, and the percentages who did not return for academic reasons or other reasons. Data were received from 15 of 17*community college campuses, all eight state college/university campuses, and all five campuses of the University of Maryland.

The institutions reported a total of 23,706 freshmen enrolled fall 1974: 4,854 were black, 17,701 were white, 384 were other American minorities, and 1,487 were foreign students or students whose race was unknown. High percentages of these students returned to the reporting institutions in fall 1975: 74% of black students, 68% of white students and 70% of other minority students returned. Twenty-six percent of black students, 32% of white students and 30% of other minority students did not return to the reporting institution. (The reader is cautioned that these latter figures do not reflect students who may have transferred to other colleges--some of these students who did not return may be enrolled at another institution.)

The rates at which returning students advance to second year status after their first year of study differ by race. Black students and American Indian students are advancing at a slower rate than white Asian or Hispanic students: 28% of the 1974 enrolled black students, 27% of American Indian students, 53% of Asian students, 33% of Hispanic students and 38% of white students advanced to second year status. Forty-five percent of black students, 37% of American Indian students, 23% of Asian students, 32% of Hispanic and 26% of white students remained in first year status.

The reasons for students not returning to the reporting institutions also differ by race. Seven percent of the 1974 black students did not return for reasons of academic failure compared to 4% American Indian, 3% Asians, 2% Hispanics and 3% of white students. Nineteen percent of the 1974 enrolled black students did not return for other reasons, compared to 32% of American Indians, 21% of Asians, 32% of Hispanics and 29% of white students.

Table 8b - First Professional Degree Students

The professional schools of the University of Maryland and University of Baltimore reported 724 full-time first year students enrolled fall 1974: 60 were black students, 2 were American Indian, 5 were American Asian, 4 were Hispanic, 649 were white students and 4 were of unknown race. Eighty-eight percent of the black students returned to the reporting institution in 1975, compared to 93% of white students and 100% of the other minority students; 12% of black students and 7% of white students did not return.

Eighty-two percent of the 1974 black enrollees advanced to second year status, and 7% remained in first year status. Ninety-two percent of white students advanced to second year status, while 1.5% remained in first year status. All (100%) of the other minority students advanced to second year status.

Seven percent of the 1974 black enrollees did not return to the reporting institution for reasons of academic failure, while 5% did not return for other reasons. One half of 1% of the white students did not return for reasons of academic failure, while 6% did not return for other reasons.

Brief Description of Trend and Summary Tables 10a - 10f

Trends in Racial Composition of Full-time Students (Tables 10a and 10b)

Tables 10a and b illustrate the continual progress that Maryland public postsecondary education institutions are making toward reaching their 1980 projected ranges of full-time black student enrollment. Table 10a presents data from 1970 through 1975, with projected ranges for full-time undergraduate students; Table 10b illustrates enrollment patterns of graduate and first professional students with 1980 projected ranges.

The percentage of full-time black undergraduate students has increased from 13.3% in 1970 to 20% in 1975; the 1980 projected range is 21-23%. Ten institutions have already reached their 1980 ranges of black enrollment. The percentage of full-time black graduate and first professional students increased from 7.7% in 1970 to 10.2% in 1975; the 1980 projected range is 12-16%.

Table 10c Summary of all Students Enrolled, Fall, 1975

Table 10c illustrates the total number of students enrolled in 1975, including full and part-time undergraduate, graduate and first professional level students. Maryland public postsecondary education institutions reported a total of 176,193 students enrolled in the fall of 1975: 72.5% were white students, 17.6% were black students, .5% were American Indians, .7% were American Asians, .6% were American Hispanic, 2.2% were foreign and 5.9% were of unknown race.

The predominantly white colleges and universities reported that 9.1% of all students enrolled were black, 80.4% were white and 10.5% were of other races. The predominantly black institutions reported 18.2% white enrollment, 75.9% black enrollment and 5.9% of other races.

Tables 10d, 10e and 10f Trends in Enrollment by Program

Tables 10d,e and f present trends in enrollment by program area, comparing fall 1974 and fall 1975 for undergraduate and first professional level students. Although the amount of change in enrollment patterns is small between 1974 and 1975, there are some points to be noted.

On both the undergraduate (Table 10d) and graduate (Table 10e) levels, the number of black students enrolled in the fields of business management, communications, health professions, public affairs and services and social sciences has increased. Enrollment for all students has decreased in the field of education.

Table 10f indicates that the total number of students studying in the combined areas of dentistry and medicine has increased from 1136 in 1974 to 1195 in 1975, while the total number of students studying law has decreased from 1905 in 1974 to 1808 in 1975. The number of black students enrolled in the fields of dentistry and medicine has remained fairly constant, while the number studying law has increased from 121 in 1974 to 136 in 1975.

Brief Description of Trend and Summary Tables

Table 12 Trends in Racial Composition of Employees, 1974-1975

Table 12 presents data on full and part-time employees reported by public institutions in 1974 and 1975 by occupational category. The data for 1974 do not include the University of Baltimore and Montgomery College-Germantown Campus; the former was not a public institution in 1974, and the latter was not operating in 1974. The 1975 data do include these campuses, and a new category for teaching/research assistants.

The public institutions reported a total of 22,431 employees in 1974 and 25,635 in 1975; the numbers of black and white employees reported increased but the percentage of black employees slightly decreased (from 23% in 1974 to 21% in 1975). The number and percentage of other minority employees decreased in 1974. The reader should note that 3% of employees in 1975 were reported as race unknown.

The number of black employees increased from 1974 to 1975 in most of the faculty categories and in the non-professional categories; however the percentage of black employees decreased in all categories but Assistant Professors and Lecturers. The numbers of white employees increased in all categories except unranked faculty and professional employees; the percentage of white employees decreased in the categories of Assistant Professors, Lecturers and Instructors.

Table 13 Summary of Faculty by Tenure Status and Rank, Fall 1975

Table 13 presents information on the number of full and part-time faculty with and without tenure according to rank. Data are included from all eighteen community college campuses, all eight state colleges/universities, all five campuses of the University of Maryland and the Center for Environmental and Estuarine Studies.

The institutions reported a total of 3112 faculty with tenure: 9% were black, 87% were white, 2% were other minorities and 2% were Foreign or race unknown. Over half of tenured faculty of all races were in the ranks of Professor and Associate Professor.

A total of 6,121 untenured faculty were reported: 10% were black, 83.5% were white, 1.5% were other minority and 5% were Foreign or race unknown. Over half the untenured black and other minority faculty were in the ranks of Instructor and Lecturer; over half the white untenured faculty were in the ranks of Lecturer and Assistant Professor.

Table 14 Summary of Changes in Status of Employees (from October 1974 to October 1975)

Table 14 presents information on the number of employees hired (full and part-time), the number of employees retired, resigned or dismissed (full-time) and the number of employees promoted (full-time) at the public institutions between October 1974 and October 1975. The data represent all eighteen community colleges, all eight state colleges/universities, all five campuses of the University of Maryland, the Center for Environmental and Estuarine Studies, and the central administrations of the University of Maryland and Montgomery College.

One hundred full-time executives/administrators/managers were newly hired during this period: 25% were black and 75% were white. Four hundred thirty-eight full-time faculty were hired: 14% were black, 80% were white, 2% were other minorities and 4% were Foreign or race unknown. Fifteen full-time teaching/research assistants were hired: 93% were white and 7% were race unknown. For other professional employees, 609 were hired: 10% were black, 83% were white, 3% were other minorities and 4% were Foreign or race unknown. For non-professional employees, 1,366 were hired: 31% were black 66% were white, 2% were other minorities and 1% were race unknown.

Three part-time executives/administrators/managers were hired; all were white. For part-time faculty, 1,482 were hired: 7% were black, 81% were white, 1% were other minorities and 11% were race unknown. For part-time teaching/research assistants, 534 were hired: 3% were black, 89% were white, 4% were other minorities and 4% were race unknown. Seventy-six part-time other professional employees were hired: 11% were black, 87% were white and 2% were Foreign or race unknown. For part-time non-professional employees, 469 were hired: 16% were black, 67% were white, 4% were other minorities and 13% were race unknown.

The institutions reported 63 full-time executives/administrators/managers had retired, resigned or were dismissed: 27% were black, 71% were white and 2% were other minorities. Two hundred-nine full-time faculty left the institutions: 15% were black, 82% were white, 1.5% were other minorities and 1.5% were Foreign or race unknown. Sixty-two full-time other professional employees left: 23% were black, 76% were white and 1% were other minorities.

Sixty-seven full-time executives/administrators/managers were promoted: 19% were black and 81% were white. For full-time faculty, 391 were promoted: 7% were black, 85% were white and 8% were other minorities. Thirty-one other professional employees were promoted: 13% were black and 87% were white.

Brief Description of Summary Table

Table 16 Summary of Faculty by Instructional Program

Table 16 presents information on the number of faculty within program area for Maryland public postsecondary education institutions. Full and part-time faculty are indicated, as well as the total number of faculty. The data represent sixteen of eighteen community college campuses, all eight state college and university campuses, all five campuses of the University of Maryland, and the Center for Environmental and Estuarine Studies.

The institutions reported a total of 10,601 faculty members: 9% were black, 1.5% American Asian, 84% were white, 3% were foreign, 2% were of unknown race, and less than 1% were American Indian or Hispanic.

Over half the black faculty are in the areas of Education, Social Sciences and Letters. Over half of the American Asian faculty are in the fields of Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, Mathematics and Health Professions. The largest numbers of Hispanic faculty are in Foreign Languages and Fine and Applied Arts. Most of the American Indian faculty are in the Social Sciences and Business and Management fields. White faculty are predominant in all fields; the largest numbers of white faculty are in the Social Sciences, Health Professions and Education.

Table 18 Summary of Average Salaries for Faculty and Executives/ Administrators/Managers, Fall 1975

Table 18 presents average salaries for full-time executive/administrative/managerial personnel and for full-time faculty on 9-10 month and 11-12 month contracts. The data represent 15 of 18 community college campuses, all eight state 4 year college and university campuses, all five University of Maryland campuses, and the University of Maryland Center for Environmental and Estuarine Studies.

Executives/Administrators/Managers

A total of 896 executives/administrative/managerial employees were reported, with an average salary of $22,292. Seventy-seven percent of these employees were white, with an average salary of $23,214; 21% were black with an average salary of $19,022. Only 1% of these employees were of other minority groups.

Faculty, 9-10 Month Contracts

The average salaries reported for faculty on 9-10 month contracts were $23,483 for professors, $18,149 for associate professors, $15,001 for assistant professors, $12,151 for instructors, $11,118 for lecturers, and $12,225 for other faculty. Except in the case of the "other faculty" category, black faculty members on 9-10 month contracts averaged salaries slightly higher than the above amounts, while white, asian and hispanic American faculty tended to average slightly less than these amounts.

Faculty, 11-12 Month Contracts

The average salaries reported for faculty on 11-12 month contracts were $31,749 for professors, $24,658 for associate professors, $20,656 for assistant professors, $15,939 for instructors, $15,875 for lecturers, and $15,149 for other faculty. White faculty members averaged slightly higher than these amounts except in the ranks of assistant professors and instructors; black faculty members averaged less than these amounts in all ranks but the "other faculty" category; Asian American faculty members averaged lower than the above salaries in the ranks of professors, assistant professors, and lecturers, but averaged slightly higher salaries in the ranks of associate professors, instructors, and other faculty. Very few American Indian and Hispanic faculty were reported.

The Honorable Marvin Mandel
Governor
State of Maryland
Executive Department
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Governor Mandel:

Enclosed is the second volume of the Second Annual Desegregation Report. This volume includes student related data for fall 1975: applications, acceptances and actual enrollments at the State colleges and universities; residence of students enrolled; financial assistance awards; degrees granted; and student progression rates and reasons for students not returning to the campuses in fall 1975. The data were collected in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Plan for Completing the Desegregation of the Public Postsecondary Education Institutions in the State.

Very briefly, the data collected for 1975 shows that the rates of acceptance at a college or university for students who have applied do not appear to differ for minority and white students. Eighty-nine percent of the black students enrolled are Maryland residents, coming mainly from Baltimore City and Prince George's county; 93% of white students enrolled are Maryland residents, coming mainly from Montgomery, Baltimore and Prince George's Counties. On the undergraduate level, 35% of financial aid awards were granted to black students and 36% to white students; on the graduate level, 14% of the awards were granted to black students compared to 79% to white students. The total number of degrees awarded has increased since 1974; of particular note is the fact that the number of law degrees granted to blacks has increased from 7 in 1974 to 25 in 1975. The student progression data shows that black students who were enrolled for the first time in 1974 returned to the same campus in fall 1975 at a higher rate than white students (74% compared to 68%), but that black students are advancing toward graduation at a slower rate than white students; i.e., 28% of the 1974 enrolled black freshmen advance to sophomore status compared to 38% of white freshmen.

Sincerely,

Sheldon H. Knorr
Executive Director

INTRODUCTION

This is the second volume of the Second Annual Desegregation Status Report, February 1976. This volume includes student related data on applications, acceptances and actual enrollments at Maryland public colleges and universities, residence of students, financial aid awards, degrees granted and student progression. Other volumes of the report are:

- Volume I Summary Tables
- Volume III Student Enrollment by Program
- Volume IV Employees and Board Members

The data for this report were collected in Fall 1975 with the cooperation of the higher education institutions and segmental boards. The Second Annual Desegregation Report has been prepared and published in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Plan for Completing the Desegregation of the Public Post-secondary Education Institutions in the State.

SECTION A
APPLICATIONS, ACCEPTANCES, ACTUAL ENROLLMENTS,
FALL 1975

Brief Description of Table 1

Applications, Acceptances, Actual Enrollments, Fall 1975

Table 1 presents data for individual institutions on the number of students who applied for fall 1975 admission, the number of these applicants who were accepted, and the number who then actually enrolled. Since many students apply for admission to more than one institution, aggregates of these data would be meaningless. This was the first year that race and sex data were collected for persons who applied and were accepted at the colleges and universities. Table 1 presents data for twelve community colleges, five state colleges/universities and three campuses of the University of Maryland.

The community colleges generally have a higher rate of actual enrollees than the four year colleges and universities; the community colleges reported rates ranging between 59% and 98% of persons who applied actually enrolling for course work, whereas between 46% and 61% of persons applying for undergraduate admission at the four year colleges and universities actually enrolled. The rates at which students who apply are accepted and the rates at which they actually enroll appear very similar for minority and white students at the community colleges which provided data.

Directions for Use of Table 1:
Applications, Acceptances, Actual Enrollments, Fall 1975

Table 1 presents detailed information about the number of students applying for admission fall 1975 at Maryland public postsecondary institutions, the number of applicants who were accepted for admissions, and the number of applicants who actually enrolled. The data are organized by the following categories:

Class level: Undergraduate level applicants are presented first, followed by Graduate, and First Professional level.

Standing in program: students seeking admission to each of the three class levels as first-time students (i.e. not previously enrolled at that level) are presented first, followed by students who are applying as transfer students (i.e. transferring from another institution).

Geographic Origin: refers to the location of the educational institution (secondary or postsecondary) last attended by the applicant if attendance has been within the last year - if not, then the geographic origin is determined by the applicant's residence.

For all class levels, origins consist of: from within the county in which the reporting institution is located; from outside the county, but within Maryland; from outside Maryland, but within the U. S.; or from outside the U. S.

In the case of graduate and first-professional level applicants, this table also reports whether or not the applicant was previously enrolled elsewhere in the institution.

SECTION C
FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO STUDENTS,
FALL 1975

Brief Description of Summary Tables

Table 4a Summary of Financial Assistance to Undergraduate Students, Fall 1975

Table 4a presents summary information on the number of grants, scholarships, loans, and student employment awards given to undergraduate students at Maryland public colleges and universities. The average amounts of these awards are also illustrated. Data are included from all seventeen* community college campuses, all eight state four year college/university campuses and all five University of Maryland campuses.

A total of 47,773 financial aid awards were reported by the institutions, at an average of $612: 19,718 (average amount of $614) were grants; 11,710 (average amount of $741) were loans; 7,502 (average amount of $438) were scholarships; and 8,843 (average amount of $584) were student employment awards. Black students received 40% of the grants (average amount of $624), 38% of loans (average amount of $694), 38% of student employment awards (average amount of $587) and 15% of scholarships (average amount of $445). White students received 42% of the loans (average amount of $664), 41% of student employment awards (average amount of $498), 32% of the grants (average amount of $453) and 31% of the scholarships (average amount of $345). Other minority students received about 1% of all awards (average amount of $589); foreign students received less than 1% of awards (average amount of $504). Twenty-seven percent of the awards were given to students whose race was unknown.

Table 4b Summary of Financial Assistance to Graduate and First Professional Students, Fall 1975

Table 4b illustrates the number and average amount of financial aid awards to graduate and first professional degree students at Maryland public four year colleges/universities and the University of Maryland campuses. A total of 4,341 awards were reported, with an average award of $2,248: 1,388 were grants, scholarships or fellowships (average amount of $1,068); 1,074 were loans (average amount of $1,472); and 1,879 were student employment awards (average amount of $3,564). The student employment awards include graduate teaching and research assistantships.

Black students received 22% of the grants/scholarships/fellowships (average amount of $1,530), 18% of the loans (average amount of $1,000) and 6% of the student employment awards (average amount of $2,467). White students received 75% of the grants/scholarships/fellowships (average amount of $926), 76% of loans (average amount of $1,575) and 83% of student employment awards (average amount of $3,555). Other minority students received about 2% of the awards (average amount of $2,316); foreign student received 4% of the awards (average amount of $4,346). About 2% of the awards were to students whose race was unknown.

Table 4c Summary of State Scholarship Program Awards

Table 4c presents information about the number and average amounts of awards made from the three State Scholarship Programs: General State Scholarships; House of Delegate Scholarships; and Senatorial Scholarships (see the Glossary, Appendix A for descriptions of these programs). These scholarships are only available to undergraduate students. The institutions reported a total of 1,154 General State Scholarship awards (average amount of $487), 223 House of Delegate Scholarship awards (average amount of $579), and 3,877 Senatorial Scholarship awards (average amount of $371). Large percentages of these scholarships are reported to have been given to students whose race was unknown. These scholarships are distributed by the State Scholarship Board; recipients are chosen by the State Scholarship Board for General State Scholarships, the Maryland State Delegates for House of Delegate Scholarships, the Maryland State Senators for the Senatorial Scholarships. These data were gathered from the institutions. Caution must be taken in interpreting the data by race categories because of the large numbers of recipients whose race was unknown. The reader is also cautioned that these data do not represent all awards under these programs. Students attending private institutions are eligible for these awards.

Financial Assistance to Students, Fall 1975

Table 5 presents detailed information about the number and amount of financial aid awards granted to undergraduate students and graduate/first professional students within different types of financial aid categories, as well as the average amounts of the awards.

The data are organized by the following categories:

Class Level: Undergraduate student data is presented first, followed by Graduate and First Professional student data, with these two class levels combined.

Financial aid categories: Grants are awards granted on the basis of need and require no repayment in service or cash (e.g. BEOG, Other-Race Grants, etc. ); Loans are awards which require repayment in service or cash upon completion of the degree program or termination of enrollment (e.g. NDSL, State insured loans, etc.); Scholarships are awards which require no repayment and which usually have criteria based on academic skills and attainment instead of, or in addition to, demonstrated financial need (e.g. General State Scholarship, etc.); Student Employment includes awards which require the student to work part-time for receipt of the award (e.g. College Work Study, graduate assistantships, etc.). Refer to the Glossary (Appendix A) for further detail of the financial aid programs.

Number and amount of awards, and average amounts: Within each aid program, the Number of awards granted, the Total Dollar Amount, and the Average Amount of the award for each race and sex category is given.

SECTION D
DEGREES AWARDED JULY 1, 1974 TO JUNE 30, 1975

Brief Description of Trend Tables

Trends in Degrees Granted by Program 1974-1975

Table 6a Certificate and Associate Degrees

Table 6 presents information on the number of certificate and associate degrees awarded by program areas in 1974 and 1975. Data are included from all seventeen*community college campuses, all eight state college/university campuses and all five campuses of the University of Maryland.

The total number of certificate and associate degrees reported by Maryland public colleges and universities increased from 5,442 in 1974 to 7,510 in 1975. While the number of degrees awarded to black and white students appear to have increased from 1974 to 1975, caution should be taken in interpreting these figures because 22% of the 1974 degrees and 15% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to persons whose race was unknown.

In general, the number of certificate and associate degrees awarded to black students appear to have increased in all areas except Education and Engineering related fields. The number of awards to white students generally increased or remained constant in all areas except Communications and Engineering (not including Engineering Technologies). The number of awards to other minority students decreased in all areas except Interdisciplinary Studies and Arts and Sciences.

Table 6b - Bachelors Degrees

The total number of Bachelor's degrees awarded increased from 12,173 in 1974 to 13,218 in 1975. The number of degrees awarded have increased in the fields of Agriculture, Biological Sciences, Business, Communications, Computer Sciences, Health Professions, Home Economics, Physical Sciences, Psychology, Public Affairs and Services and Interdisciplinary Studies. The number of degrees awarded have decreased in the fields of Architecture, Area Studies, Education, Engineering, Fine and Applied Arts, Foreign Languages, Letters and Social Sciences. A large percentage (55%) of the degrees awarded in 1974 were awarded to persons whose race was unknown, therefore no conclusions can be drawn from these data about the racial composition of Bachelor's degree recipients.

Table 6c Master's Degrees

The number of Masters degrees awarded have increased from 2,715 in 1974 to 3,020 in 1975. The number of Master's degrees awarded to black students appear to have increased in 1975; however, because 10% of the 1974 degrees and 20% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to students whose race was unknown, caution should be taken in interpreting racial composition data. In general, the numbers of master's degrees have increased in the fields of Agriculture, Business, Education, Library Science, Physical Sciences, Psychology and Public Affairs and Services.

*The data do not include the Germantown campus of Montgomery College which enrolled students for the first time in fall 1975.

Table 6d - Doctorate Degrees

The total number of doctorate degrees awarded increased from 344 in 1974 to 400 in 1975. Sizeable increases were in the fields of Biological Sciences, Education and Engineering. Since 43% of the 1975 degrees were awarded to persons whose race was unknown an accurate interpretation of the racial composition data cannot be made.

Table 6e First Professional Degrees

The number of first professional degrees awarded in the field of Law increased from 531 in 1974 to 559 in 1975, while the number of degrees awarded in Dentistry decreased from 126 in 1974 to 119 in 1975, and the number awarded in Medicine decreased slightly from 136 in 1974 to 134 in 1975. The number of degrees awarded to blacks in the fields of Dentistry and Law increased in 1975, while the number of Medical degrees decreased slightly. Degrees awarded to whites in the field of Medicine and Dentistry decreased, while the number of Law degrees awarded increased in 1975.

SECTION E

STUDENT PROGRESSION AND REASONS FOR

STUDENTS NOT RETURNING, FALL 1975

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF SUMMARY TABLES

Summary of Student Progression
and Reasons for Not Returning
Fall 1975Table 8a - Full-Time Undergraduate Students

Table 8a illustrates the numbers and percentages of 1974 full-time first year undergraduate enrollees who returned or did not return to the reporting institutions in fall 1975. It also shows the percentages of these students who advanced to second year status or remained in first year status, and the percentages who did not return for academic reasons or other reasons. Data were received from 15 of 17*community college campuses, all eight state college/university campuses, and all five campuses of the University of Maryland.

The institutions reported a total of 23,706 freshmen enrolled fall 1974: 4,854 were black, 17,701 were white, 384 were other American minorities, and 1,487 were foreign students or students whose race was unknown. High percentages of these students returned to the reporting institutions in fall 1975: 74% of black students, 68% of white students and 70% of other minority students returned. Twenty-six percent of black students, 32% of white students and 30% of other minority students did not return to the reporting institution. (The reader is cautioned that these latter figures do not reflect students who may have transferred to other colleges--some of these students who did not return may be enrolled at another institution.)

The rates at which returning students advance to second year status after their first year of study differ by race. Black students and American Indian students are advancing at a slower rate than white Asian or Hispanic students: 28% of the 1974 enrolled black students, 27% of American Indian students, 53% of Asian students, 33% of Hispanic students and 38% of white students advanced to second year status. Forty-five percent of black students, 37% of American Indian students, 23% of Asian students, 32% of Hispanic and 26% of white students remained in first year status.

The reasons for students not returning to the reporting institutions also differ by race. Seven percent of the 1974 black students did not return for reasons of academic failure compared to 4% American Indian, 3% Asians, 2% Hispanics and 3% of white students. Nineteen percent of the 1974 enrolled black students did not return for other reasons, compared to 32% of American Indians, 21% of Asians, 32% of Hispanics and 29% of white students.

Table 8b - First Professional Degree Students

The professional schools of the University of Maryland and University of Baltimore reported 724 full-time first year students enrolled fall 1974: 60 were black students, 2 were American Indian, 5 were American Asian, 4 were Hispanic, 649 were white students and 4 were of unknown race. Eighty-eight percent of the black students returned to the reporting institution in 1975, compared to 93% of white students and 100% of the other minority students; 12% of black students and 7% of white students did not return.

Eighty-two percent of the 1974 black enrollees advanced to second year status, and 7% remained in first year status. Ninety-two percent of white students advanced to second year status, while 1.5% remained in first year status. All (100%) of the other minority students advanced to second year status.

Seven percent of the 1974 black enrollees did not return to the reporting institution for reasons of academic failure, while 5% did not return for other reasons. One half of 1% of the white students did not return for reasons of academic failure, while 6% did not return for other reasons.
